Ilaria Di Lorenzo
President and Chief Executive Officer
IRBM SpA
Via Pontina Km 30, 600
Pomezia, 00071
Italy

Dear Ms. Di Lorenzo:

The AAALAC International Council on Accreditation has reviewed the 12 December 2025 correspondence pertaining to IRBM SpA, Pomezia, Italy. The Council is pleased to inform you that the deficiency pertaining to the continuing education programme for staff noted in its 23 October 2025 correspondence has been corrected satisfactorily in accordance with the AAALAC International Rules of Accreditation. Council also acknowledges and appreciates your efforts to address the recommended suggestions for improvement. Therefore, FULL ACCREDITATION is awarded. The Council recognizes your efforts to achieve a quality animal care and use programme and commends you and your staff for the positive actions taken.

Council looks forward to following your programme activities and wishes you continued success. AAALAC International requires an Annual Report that describes any changes made during the year in accredited units. Submitting this report is required to maintain accreditation. In the meantime, AAALAC International should be promptly informed of any significant programme changes or adverse events. Guidance on these reporting requirements may be found at www.aaalac.org. If requested, AAALAC International can also provide a separate letter confirming that your animal care and use programme is accredited.

Sincerely,

David G. Schabdach, D.V.M., M.S.
President, Council on Accreditation
